CLASS POEM

Today begins for each his future life work
May not a one his duty shirk.
Let us our standards ever build
And never to temptation yield.

No matter what our roads to fame,
May each one have a satisfying claim
To honest effort, straightforwardness, success
Which leads to happiness and fruitfulness.

May we the class of fifty-two
Continue steadfast; loyal; true
To our ideals and teachings stressed
Though we be often fearful and hard pressed.

LEOTA HARPER.

HISTORY OF CLASS OF 1952

Only twelve of the original group that started off in 1940 with Miss Conrad are in our present Senior Class, but there are 49 of us. Peter Smits is our president; Brona Lu Lashmit, secretary. Patsy Bailey is president of the Student Council. Miss Hawks and Mrs. Bowers are our homeroom teachers.

One September morning in 1940, we entered our first year of school. Under Miss Conrad's experienced hand, we soon learned to color, to read, and to get along together. The team from our grade won county honors for scholarship that year. We passed along to Mrs. Mock for our second year. Along with Arithmetic, we learned to fight and paid many visits to Mr. Winslow's office. Miss Harris taught us to multiply and divide in the third grade; and during our fourth year, we were taught many things about the Bible and the Holy Land, along with the usual fourth grade work, by our teacher, Mrs. Hire, who had been there. Then came Mrs. Winslow with the new subjects of history and geography in the fifth grade.

In our sixth year we had Mr. Lovelace as our new principal and Mrs. Jones as teacher. On December 2 of that year our school building burned and our friends at Vienna School shared their classrooms with us. Mrs. Jones went along and Mrs. Kelly was our principal there.

We spent our seventh school year back in the old Agriculture building under the helpful guidance of Miss Taylor. That year David Holder won the county declamation contest. Mrs. Kelly prepared us for high school in the eighth grade. The Home Demonstration club opened a library at that time and we were allowed to visit there during our lunch hour.

In the fall of 1948 we were happy to begin our high school years in the wonderful new school building. Our three years of shifting about made us more appreciative of the comfortable, well-lighted classrooms. Our new principal was Mr. Simpson, and we welcomed a group of new classmates from Vienna. Mr. Smith and Miss Hicks were our homeroom teachers.

As Sophomores we had Mrs. Sacrinty and Mr. Smith as our home room teachers, and we welcomed Peter Smits into our ranks.

Proudly we returned to school in the fall of 1950 as Juniors with Mr. Sarbaugh and Mrs. Sacrinty as Junior Sponsors. We gave our Junior Play "She Forgot To Remember" and Lewisville's first all night singing furnished most of the funds to finance our Junior-Senior Banquet at the Robert E. Lee Hotel. That glorious evening on the Balinese roof is a memory we all cherish. As Juniors we welcomed Ann Carol Ebert, Reggie Luper, Nancy Pfaff, and Martha Shore as new members of our class. Bob Huffman was class president; and Nancy Hauser, Joanna Yarbrough, and Frances Dickens were student council representatives. A highlight of the year was receiving our class rings. Some of our boys were members of the basketball team which won county and district championship honors in 1951. Our school won the trophy for good sportsmanship for 1950-51, too, and we hope we had some small part in earning it.

1951! Back for the most glorious year of all! Again some of our boys were members of the basketball team that won County Class A championship honors This provided many thrills for the entire class to go along with the social highlights of the year such as the Junior-Senior Banquet. Our Senior Play, "Our Miss Brooks", and the trip to Washington furnished more than our share of fun. Twelve years of hardships, disappointments, joys, and thrills are now in the past and we are facing the greatest triumph of them all—graduation.

DAVID HOLDER, Historian.

CLASS PROPHECY

Dear Diary,

What a night of surprises! The graduating class of '52 had our reunion after ten years, at the Lewisville Hotel dining room, and I don't know when I have ever been so glad to see everybody!

I know, without a doubt, that the entrance of Mayor Glenn Lasley was the most breath-taking of the evening, and then David Holder, Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce! Well, they seem to be doing a good job. Let's hope they continue.

A way back in '53 Betty Lou Spease and Flora Ruth Harper took a trip to Florida and liked it so well they opened up a tourist court, so they told me, but I almost fell over when Doris Rothrock walked up and said she was their bookkeeper. I might have known, though, that those girls could never be separated.

Worth Seats and Jack Dull just got home from their national tour, with the their basketball team, in time to be with us, and Jake Nifong had to fly all the way from California where he plays pro football with the Los Angeles Rams. That Patsy Bailey almost knocked everyone's eyes out with all her gracefulness and charm. Her career as a Powers model in New York certainly does agree with her.

Bettie Potts had everyone gloating over the many titles she has won playing for Hanes; and her best pal, Barbara Bodsford, is now the Lewisville girls' coach.

Diary, I have been wrong about many things, but I always knew that Rex Cline and Ruth Myers (Minnie Pearl) would be on the Grand Ole Opry, and they are!

Dorcas Apperson and Richard Conrad are also well-known members of the entertainment world. Dorcas was telling me about her many exciting concerts at Carnegie Hall, and she is to play in London this fall. Richard was named No. 1 man vocalist in America, based on a poll taken by teenagers. Melton Craft and Carl Harper were all excited about their new jobs as managers at the new atomic plant in Winston. Who wouldn't be?

Bob Haas, or Robert Pierre, as he is known in the art world, had everyone laughing at his suave and debonair—strictly phony—French appearance; but anyway his comic strips are funny.

Mary Norman is proud of her job as one of the librarians at the big library in Winston-Salem.

Lewisville is proud, too, that they have their own bus line now, owned and operated by Kenneth Beck.

Another new establishment at Lewisville is the Mock & Mock Secretarial School. Sarah Ann and Sara Ruth are the owners, of course, and Bonnie Pinnix is another commercial student who has gone far. She is a secretary in Civil Service in Washington.

Barbara Roberson was seen taking notes throughout the evening. Guess they were for her gossip column she writes for the Journal-Sentinel.

Marie Doss, Joanna Yarbrough, Jean Bowen, and Dot Beck scooted off to a corner by themselves, but I overheard them discussing their happy married lives and sweet children. Dot has twin, and Marie's little boy and Joanna's dimpled daughter were delightful. Seems the girls couldn't find baby sitters!

Diary, I wish you could have seen the entrance that Ann Carol Ebert made. Hollywood has done wonders for her and vice-versa. She had to apologize for the absence of her leading man, none other than our Bob Huffman, because he is on a personal appearance tour for a picture in Europe and couldn't attend our gala affair.

Evely Goslen was talking to me about her teaching experiences as Home Ec. Teacher at Lewisville, and how much she likes it there.

Fourteen carat diamonds were Dot Moser's feature of the evening. Lucky girl! It seems she went to Chicago and really "got happy" on a quiz show and won just about everything, including the sponsor!

I was invited over to Katie Harper's happy haven for dinner next time I'm in town, Diary, and I don't want to miss that. Her husband tells me she is a swell cook.

Those stunning creations worn by models Lois Owens and Norma Fulp were the latest from Hauser Bazaar of Lewisville. Nancy Hauser said she had found a hidden talent, and it's really paying off.

The "Merry Melody Men," a trio, made up of Raymond Craft, Albert Jones, and Fred Holder, who have won national applause, sang for us; and it was most entertaining, but I just can't get over Albert and Fred being musical. They never showed their ability in the good old days.

Nancy Pfaff told me she could hardly drag herself away from the nursery at Baptist Hospital because of the sweet little tots. They seem to be Nancy's favorite lovers.

Reggie Luper made another exciting appearance when he came into the room with a blond on one arm and a brunette on the other, but Reggie told everybody he just loved having his mother-in-law accompany his wife and him everywhere they go, and I guess that's the way all bachelors eventually wind up—married.

Margaret Warden told me she just loved being a nurse at City Hospital, but Brona Lu Lashmit said her life as hostess on Pan American Air Lines is much more exciting.

Honestly, Diary, half the people have turned out so differently from what we all expected that it is amazing.

Take Leota Harper, for instance, she is editor of the local paper, member of the school board, and a housewife, too. Smart one, that girl.

Peter Smits is certainly a distinguished looking chap, and that matches his title of Professor of Geometry at Carolina.

Dora Harper decided on a quiet married life after her exciting experience touring the country as Miss America.

Betty Dull certainly is a sight for sore eyes in her WAVE uniform. She says working for Uncle Sam is really exciting.

"Boots Be-Bop" is a program of the latest jazz music with none other than Claudine Blankenship as the disc-jockey. The local kids love her Saturday night "jam session."

It certainly was sad saying good bye to everyone, Diary, but you know we have to catch that eight o'clock train back to Yellowstone Park; after all, guides are a dime a dozen!

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

Know ye by these presents that we, the class of 1952 of Lewisville High School of Lewisville, North Carolina, do hereby make this our last will and testament.

We, the Senior Class, leave to Lewisville High School and to the Forsyth County System our appreciation for our educational opportunities that they have given to us

To our principal, Mr. Simpson, we leave our gratitude and our appreciation for his interest in us and in our future well-being.

To the faculty we leave our appreciation for their never failing efforts to help us.

To our parents we leave our many thanks for the opportunities and sacrifices they gave to us these twelve years.

We, the Seniors, leave Mrs. Conrad and her helpers our gratitude for the good meals they prepared.

Ann Carol Ebert wills her ability to catch and keep her man to Connie Martin. I believe it is already working.

Doris Rothrock bequeaths her ability to write good shorthand to Peggy Campbell.

Lois Owens leaves her habits of skipping class to Archie Huff. Don't get caught, Archie!

Betty Lou Spease bestows her Senior English book upon Shirley Harper. Be sure to memorize all of that Shakespeare.

Ruth Myers leaves her wit and jokes to Guilford Chaffin. Here's hoping you will keep Lewisville High alive, Guilford.

You know all that chewing gum you find under the seats, well Bob Haas wills that to J. D. Beroth.

Carl Harper wills his place as number one in Mrs. McChesney's heart to Wilbur Hill. See if you can get along as well with Mrs. McChesney as Carl did, Wilbur.

Mr. Simpson will certainly need a good helper next year so Glenn Lasley leaves that job to Tony Apperson.

Leota Harper wills her love for sports to Ward Huffman. She seems to be using some of it already.

Worth Seats leaves his basketball shoes to Charlie Fulp. Please don't get lost, Charlie.

Reggie Luper takes great pleasure in willing his horn-rimmed glasses to Ferrell Luper. Ferrell can surely see the sights now.

Lewisville will need some good bus drivers next year, so Fred Holder and Albert Jones leave their bus driving jobs to Carl Stewart and Joe Stimpson.

Rex Cline wills his ability to wink at the girls to Bill Hoffman. Don't wear your eyes out, Bill.

Jake Nifong wills to Tommy Beroth that football with which he made so many touchdowns last season. See what you can do with it, Tommy.

Bob Huffman seems to be quite a modest fellow but we hear he is quite a Romeo. He leaves his ability to woo and win the girls to Hubert French. Get ready to fight off the "Juliets," Hubert.

Nancy Hauser seems to be such good hot-rod driver that she thinks Sally Bazemore needs a few lessons in driving. Sally never gets over 99 at the least and Nancy wants to will her a few driving lessons. Do you have a good hot-rod, Sally?

Nancy Pfaff and David Holder whole-heartedly will the two back seats in the balcony to Lou Ann Brewer and Marvin Yow. Watch that peanut gallery, Lou Ann and Marvin.

Evelyn Goslen loves Economics and Sociology so much she thinks Joyce Binkley and Joanne Casey would be delighted to have her books. Girls, you will certainly enjoy Mr. Bridges teaching the class.

Somebody will have to wear that chief cheerleader suit next year. Dora Harper wonders if you can take care of that for her, Rachel Snow.

Claudine Blankenship has a lot of excuses she had to get signed by Mr. Simpson for being absent. She would like very much to will these to Mary Pfaff. Do you think anyone would know they are a little old, Mary?

Peter Smits seems to be able to get along extra well with the teachers. He is willing this ability to Johnny Yates and Eugene Hauser.

Dot Moser wills her love for weekends and any "date-night" to Lois Harper. Have a good time Lois.

Jack Dull wills part of his height to Glen Motsinger and Val Hauser. It is time you see the world, boys.

Barbara Roberson leaves her "bashful nature" to Bill Perryman. Now what will Barbara do without it?

Dorcas Apperson wills her job as accompanist for the chorus to Dee Jarrett. Dee seems to be in good practice now.

Frances Dickens wills the Lewisville Logbook to Ann Haynes. Keep us posted with all the news, Ann.

Richard Conrad seems to be a regular Clark Gable. He leaves his acting ability, especially that good job he did in the Senior Play, to Robert Conrad. Let's have some theatre guild productions, Robert.

Mary Norman and Margaret Warden always get to class on time so they will this ability to Rosetta Hatcher and Betty Sowers.

Marie Doss wills her tiny figure to Frances Whitman. Don't blow away, Frances.

Sara Ruth Mock leaves her typing ability and love for her music to George Stone. George will be very talented now.

Patsy Bailey leaves her job ass president of the Student Council to George Beroth. Do you think you can do the job, George?

Betty Dull wills Romonia Hicks all those timed-writings she got in typing class. Romonia you will be an A student now.

It seems that Norma Fulp never gets anywhere on time, especially school. She wills her ability to always be late to Frances Shelton. See if you can do a better job!

Katie Harper does enjoy riding around in red Fords. To Lola Jones she leaves the pleasure of riding in any kind of Ford.

If you ever stopped in on a Senior Class meeting, you surely heard a hot discussion and Brona Lu Lashmit trying feverishly to take down the minutes. Brona Lu wills her job as Senior Class Secretary to Tommy Wright. Maybe you had better take shorthand, Tommy.

Bettie Potts makes a wonderful prompter for a play. She would like to will this job to S. T. Craft. Think you can do it, S. T.?

Melton Craft leaves his job of entertaining the girls in study hall to Frank Holder. See Melton, Frank, for a few pointers on how to be a success at your new job.

You know when Albert Jones graduates Lewisville will be without a Shakespeare. Albert decided to will his nickname of "Shakespeare" to William Barr. You will make a fine one, William.

Somebody will surely have to laugh at the teachers' jokes next year. Barbara Bodsford always laughed at them and really enjoyed herself. Barbara leaves this job to Nancy McBride. Be prepared, Nancy.

Flora Ruth Harper "seems" to be so quiet. She leaves all those things she didn't say, but should have, to Betty Dalton and Frances Billings.

Joanna Yarbrough wills her job as editor of the school paper to Doris Tucker. See what you can do with it, Doris.

Kenneth Beck leaves his ability to play baseball to Bill Messer and Hassell Sheets. What about some home runs?

Sara Ann Mock leaves her job as office helper to Janet Whitaker. Janet, think you can do it.

Raymond Craft wills his good singing voice to Gene Carter and Bill Foster. Think Lewisville can have another good quartet?

Jean Bowen wills her ability to catch a Marine to Sylvia Pearce. Now what about that, Sylvia?

Your testator wills her job of writing the will to Betty Tucker. And I warn you it is not as easy as it may look.

We, the Senior Class, do will and bequeath our abilities to co-operate harmoniously to the rising Senior Class.

To the Junior Class, we leave our patience and our ability to endure.

We, the Seniors, leave to the Sophomore Class our ability to be sure of and to express personal opinions.

We the Seniors, leave to the incoming Freshman our hopes that they will have four years of satisfaction in the high school days to come.

At the request of the 1952 Senior Class, this will was signed, sealed, and published this the fourth day of June in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and fifty-two.

BONNIE PINNIX, Testator.

GIRLS' VARSITY BASKETBALL

The girls' team seemed to progress with the season. Even though they didn't win all the games, we were proud of them. Their sportsmanship and teamwork were "tops." The forwards and guards equally did their share of work. They finished up the season as the middle team in the county conference play with 6 wins, 9 losses, and 1 tie. This may not seem too impressive unless you remember the many games lost by a small margin and the hard fighting spirit that our team displayed every time. This makes us very proud of the team.

Our basketball team displayed very good teamwork this year. Even though there wasn't a tournament, we feel sure they are the champions! They finished in first place in the county, having a 15-1 conference record. We are very proud of the whole team. Richard Conrad, Worth Seats, and Jake Nifong won player-of-the-week titles; Richard Conrad and Worth Seats were chosen on the All-County team; and Seats was also placed on the Journal-Sentinel All-Northwest Team.

The girls' junior varsity team displayed a grand spirit and fought hard for every game even if they didn't win very many. We are sure that by the experience these girls got this year that the varsity team will be strengthened. The entire team had a big part in the athletic program this year and the school is proud of these girls.
